

The Facts

Proprietor	Gina Chersevani
Location	Union Market: 1309 5 th Street NE Washington, DC 20002
Website	www.suburbiabar.com
Social Media	Instagram: @suburbiadc Facebook: facebook.com/Suburbia-Cocktrailer
Media Relations	Simone Rathlé simone@simoneink.com
Date of Opening	2013
Hours	Monday-Friday 1PM-Dusk Saturday/Sunday 11AM-Dusk
Menu	Chersevani always has a few riffs in her apron pocket, giving classic cocktails a new look - think a Frozen Rickey , Negroni , Jungle Bird , Manhattan , Pimm's Cup , Sazerac , Julep , and Old Fashioned - sharing a sublime texture that goes along with the taste. When Chersevani launched Suburbia, her goal was to rekindle those favorite childhood experiences - sitting in Adirondack chairs with your feet in the grass, Weber grills, and of course, vacationing in an Airstream. These drinks transport imbibers to a time and place of nostalgia!
Venue	A converted 1960s Airstream Trailer. Conjures nostalgia-inducing memories of summer days – think Adirondack chairs, Weber grills, and icy drinks. Chersevani sought inspiration from her childhood in Long Island, where she fondly remembers people parking RVs in their yards and using them as secondary kitchens and storage for parties. To reinforce the suburban feel, the airstream trailer is parked on a stretch of grass where imbibers can soak up the sun in lounge chairs, play corn hole, and relax.
Dress Code	Casual shirt and shoes (and pants) will get you service
Payment	All credit cards are accepted.
Parking	Union Market provides ample parking spaces in an adjacent lot.

For more information:

Simone Rathlé | president | simone@simoneink.com

Suburbia | 1309 5th St NE, Washington, DC 20002
202-543-2549 | suburbiabar.com | @suburbiadc