Venue	The Wardroom occupies what was once a mid-19th-century hotel. The restored brick building, with a vast basement, boasts an extensive wine cellar and tasting room and features an epicurean market showcasing hand-selected and house-made artisan products, premium ingredients, and wines from top vintners worldwide. The rarest bottles are stored inside a reconditioned vault - discovered during the renovation process. Adjacent to the cellar is an extensive array of over 30 cheeses, aging in a temperature-controlled "cave."
Menu	On the main level is the gastronomic European-style shop, with elegant glass cases displaying handmade pastas, house-cured meats, and assorted chocolates from La Maison du Chocolat, and gourmet products. In addition, readily prepared dishes and sandwiches are available as created by Bluepoint Hospitality executive chef Harley Peet. Each evening the lively marketplace transforms into a relaxed yet sophisticated wine and gnocchi bar. Patrons may savor tastings, or a glass, from a parade of 24 exceptional wines dispensed from the Enomatic custom-cooling wine portals. The list of wines is joined by 50 boutique spirits that are available by the bottle.
