After drinking on velvet furniture in dark lounges all winter, we're ready for spritzzy cocktails in sunny bars with the best views of skylines and glistening waters. Whether you're a city person or a beachgoer, we've searched high and low for the best rooftops, beach bars and beer gardens to get you in the warm weather spirit. These 15 summer bars around the world are worth a visit this season.

This sunny waterfront bar is on the picturesque DC Wharf, and it offers colorful tropical decor along with a rooftop deck for those looking for a tiki fix. Tiki TNT owner Todd Thrasher is also responsible for neighboring Potomac Distilling Company where he makes his namesake rum for the bar's drinks. Think classics like Mai Tais and Zombies, along with signature creations like the Frozen Spiced Rum in Coke.
